St. Mary the Virgin, Aldermanbury, is one of the churches designed by Sir Christopher Wren after the destruction of the original building by the Great Fire. It was built in 1675, and one of the bells in the tower bears that date. Judge Jefferies is buried within its walls, and here Milton married his second wife. The living is remarkable as being one of the few churches, the disposal of whose ministry lies in the hands of the parishioners.

Dear Mrs J. Jones I have very pleasing Mr Rickey. So sorry Mr Caird's not-o Come last-time Yours last-I shall Soon see Yours in the evening Love Dad
